

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 17-CR-208

JAMES A. HUSKISSON,

Defendant.

PLEA AGREEMENT

1. The United States of America, by its attorneys, Gregory J. Haanstad, United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, and Daniel R. Humble, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, James A. Huskisson, individually and by attorney Krista Halla-Valdes, pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, enter into the following plea agreement:

CHARGES

2. The defendant has been charged in a three-count indictment, which alleges violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2251(a), 2260A, and 2422(b).

3. The defendant has read and fully understands the charges contained in the indictment. He fully understands the nature and elements of the crimes with which he has been charged, and those charges and the terms and conditions of the plea agreement have been fully explained to him by his attorney.

4. The defendant voluntarily agrees to plead guilty to the following count set forth in full as follows:

COUNT ONE

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

On or about September 25, 2017, in the State and Eastern District of Wisconsin and elsewhere,

JAMES A. HUSKISSON,
a/k/a JASON DESANTES,
a/k/a "JASON LEE,"

knowingly employed, used, persuaded, induced, enticed and coerced Jane Doe A, a minor, to engage in sexually explicit conduct for the purpose of producing a visual depiction of such conduct, to wit: a visual depiction of Jane Doe, a minor, engaged in the lascivious exhibition of her genitals, which visual depiction was transported and transmitted using any means and facility of interstate and foreign commerce and in and affecting interstate and foreign commerce.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2251(a).

5. The defendant acknowledges, understands, and agrees that he is, in fact, guilty of the offense described in paragraph 4. The parties acknowledge and understand that if this case were to proceed to trial, the government would be able to prove the following facts beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant admits that these facts are true and correct and establish his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt:

On or about September 10, 2017, the defendant made contact via Facebook with Jane Doe, a 15 year-old. She initially rebuffed him as being "too old" to correspond with her. The defendant misrepresented his age as being 31 years-old, though in actuality the defendant was 44 years-old at that time. Jane Doe made it clear to the defendant she was then 15 years-old. Over the next few days, the defendant and Jane Doe exchanged messages via Facebook and other internet based messaging applications. The defendant consistently asked Jane Doe for pictures of her genitals and requested videos and digital images of Jane Doe masturbating. Further, on numerous occasions he sent her digital images via his cell phone of his erect penis.

On September 24, 2017, the defendant commenced the 17-hour drive from his home in New York to the State and Eastern District of Wisconsin with the clear intent to engage in intercourse with Jane Doe. The defendant several times messaged Jane Doe stating that he was going to “take her virginity.” He further instructed her on how to perform oral sex on him. She sent him her address and as he approached Wisconsin, they began to coordinate as to the times that Jane Doe’s stepmother would be out of the home so that they could engage in intercourse.

The defendant agreed to provide Jane Doe with a “secret” cell phone. He brought the phone to her school in a backpack and left the bag on school grounds for Jane Doe to find. A school official believed Huskisson’s vehicle to be suspicious and a description was reported to the Shawano Police. Approximately 2 hours later, the defendant was pulled over for shoplifting from a local Walmart. The officer captured the exchange with the defendant on body camera, but failed to connect him to the earlier report at the school.

Facebook chat logs and digital images exchanged between the defendant and Jane Doe reflect numerous instances of the lascivious exhibition of their genitals which they exchanged via the internet. Between September 24 and September 27, 2017, the defendant and Jane Doe engaged in sexual intercourse in Jane Doe’s bedroom. A video depicting the two of them taken shortly after the intercourse, as well as chat logs confirm that several sexual acts including intercourse occurred between the two of them. Investigators recovered the victim’s sheets which were bloody, but also contained semen stains. Testing by the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory confirms that the semen on Jane Doe’s sheets is a DNA match to the defendant.

The defendant is a lifetime sex offender registrant in the State of New York based on a First Degree Forcible Rape conviction in 1999, contrary to New York Penal Code Section 130.35.

All messages and images referenced above were sent using the internet, a facility and means of interstate and foreign commerce.

This information is provided for the purpose of setting forth a factual basis for the plea of guilty. It is not a full recitation of the defendant's knowledge of, or participation in, this offense.

PENALTIES

6. The parties understand and agree that the offense to which the defendant will enter a plea of guilty carries the following maximum term of imprisonment and fine: 30 years and $250,000. The count also carries a mandatory minimum of 15 years of imprisonment. Each count also carries a mandatory special assessment of $100, at least 5 years of supervised release, and a maximum of a lifetime on supervised release. The parties further recognize that a restitution order may be entered by the court. Finally, if the court determines that the defendant is non-indigent, the court must impose a $5,000 special assessment for each relevant count of conviction pursuant to Title 18 United States Code, Section 3014(a). This amount cannot be reduced and it applies to offenses committed after the date of May 29, 2015.

7. The defendant acknowledges, understands, and agrees that he has discussed the relevant statutes as well as the applicable sentencing guidelines with his attorney.

DISMISSAL OF REMAINING COUNTS

8. The government agrees to move to dismiss the remaining counts of the indictment at the time of sentencing.

ELEMENTS

9. The parties understand and agree that in order to sustain the charge of sexual exploitation of a minor as set forth in the indictment, the government must prove each of the following propositions beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the victim was under the age of eighteen years;

Second, that the defendant, for purposes of producing a visual depiction of such conduct, employed, used, persuaded or coerced the person identified in the indictment to take part in sexually explicit conduct; and

Third, the defendant knew or had reason to know that such visual depiction would be mailed or transported across state lines or in foreign commerce, or the visual depiction was transmitted using materials that had been mailed, shipped, transported across state lines or in foreign commerce.

Sexually explicit conduct is defined as actual or simulated sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, masturbation, or lascivious exhibition of the genitals or pubic area of any person. 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2)(A).

SENTENCING PROVISIONS

10. The parties agree to waive the time limits in Fed. R. Crim. P. 32 relating to the presentence report, including that the presentence report be disclosed not less than 35 days before the sentencing hearing, in favor of a schedule for disclosure, and the filing of any objections, to be established by the court at the change of plea hearing.

11. The parties acknowledge, understand, and agree that any sentence imposed by the court will be pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act, and that the court will give due regard to the Sentencing Guidelines when sentencing the defendant.

12. The parties acknowledge and agree that they have discussed all of the sentencing guidelines provisions which they believe to be applicable to the offense set forth in paragraph 4.

The defendant acknowledges and agrees that his attorney in turn has discussed the applicable sentencing guidelines provisions with him to the defendant's satisfaction.

13. The parties acknowledge and understand that prior to sentencing the United States Probation Office will conduct its own investigation of the defendant's criminal history. The parties further acknowledge and understand that, at the time the defendant enters a guilty plea, the parties may not have full and complete information regarding the defendant's criminal history. The parties acknowledge, understand, and agree that the defendant may not move to withdraw the guilty plea solely as a result of the sentencing court's determination of the defendant's criminal history.

Rule 11(c)(1)(C)

14. Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), the parties enter into this plea agreement. If the Court accepts this Plea Agreement, the Defendant will receive the stipulated sentence set forth in paragraph 21. If the Court rejects this Plea Agreement, the Defendant will have the opportunity to withdraw his plea of guilty and proceed to trial, as provided under Rule 11(d)(2)(A).

Sentencing Guidelines Calculations

15. The defendant acknowledges and understands that the sentencing guidelines recommendations contained in this agreement do not create any right to be sentenced within any particular sentence range, and that the court may impose a reasonable sentence above or below the guideline range. The parties further understand and agree that if the defendant has provided false, incomplete, or inaccurate information that affects the calculations, the government is not bound to make the recommendations contained in this agreement.

Relevant Conduct

16. The parties acknowledge, understand, and agree that pursuant to Sentencing Guidelines Manual § 1B1.3, the sentencing judge may consider relevant conduct in calculating the sentencing guidelines range, even if the relevant conduct is not the subject of the offense to which the defendant is pleading guilty.

Base Offense Level

17. The parties agree to recommend to the sentencing court that the applicable base offense level for the offense charged in count one is 32 under Sentencing Guidelines Manual § 2G2.1(a).

Specific Offense Characteristics

18. The parties agree to recommend to the sentencing court that a 2-level increase for exploitation of a victim that has attained the age of 12 but was not yet 16 years of age under Sentencing Guidelines Manual § 2G2.1(b)(1)(B) is applicable to the offense level for the offense charged in count one.

Acceptance of Responsibility

19. The government agrees to recommend a two-level decrease for acceptance of responsibility as authorized by Sentencing Guidelines Manual § 3E1.1(a), but only if the defendant exhibits conduct consistent with the acceptance of responsibility. In addition, if the court determines at the time of sentencing that the defendant is entitled to the two-level reduction under § 3E1.1(a), the government agrees to make a motion recommending an additional one-level decrease as authorized by Sentencing Guidelines Manual § 3E1.1(b) because the defendant timely notified authorities of his intention to enter a plea of guilty.

Sentencing Recommendations

20. Both parties reserve the right to provide the district court and the probation office with any and all information which might be pertinent to the sentencing process, including but not limited to any and all conduct related to the offense as well as any and all matters which might constitute aggravating or mitigating sentencing factors.

21. Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), both the government and the Defendant agree that, after consideration of all the factors set forth in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a), the appropriate sentence to be imposed in this case is 360 months imprisonment, the maximum term of imprisonment for this offense. Further, the government and defendant agree that the defendant will spend the remainder of his lifetime on supervised release following his release from the Bureau of Prisons.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

22. The defendant acknowledges and understands that any and all financial obligations imposed by the sentencing court are due and payable in full upon entry of the judgment of conviction. The defendant further understands that any payment schedule imposed by the sentencing court shall be the minimum the defendant is expected to pay and that the government's collection of any and all court imposed financial obligations is not limited to the payment schedule. The defendant agrees not to request any delay or stay in payment of any and all financial obligations. If the defendant is incarcerated, the defendant agrees to participate in the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, regardless of whether the court specifically directs participation or imposes a schedule of payments.

23. The defendant agrees to provide to the Financial Litigation Unit (FLU) of the United States Attorney's Office, upon request of the FLU during any period of probation or supervised release imposed by the court, a complete and sworn financial statement on a form provided by FLU and any documentation required by the form. The defendant further agrees, upon request of FLU whether made before or after sentencing, to promptly: cooperate in the identification of assets in which the defendant has an interest, cooperate in the liquidation of any such assets, and participate in an asset deposition.

Special Assessment

24. The defendant agrees to pay the special assessment in the amount of $100 prior to or at the time of sentencing.

Restitution

25. The defendant agrees to pay restitution. The defendant understands that because restitution for the offense is mandatory pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2259, the amount of restitution shall be imposed by the court regardless of the defendant's financial resources. The defendant agrees to cooperate in efforts to collect the restitution obligation. The defendant understands that imposition or payment of restitution will not restrict or preclude the filing of any civil suit or administrative action.

DEFENDANT'S WAIVER OF RIGHTS

26. In entering this agreement, the defendant acknowledges and understands that he surrenders any claims he may have raised in any pretrial motion, as well as certain rights which include the following:

- a. If the defendant persisted in a plea of not guilty to the charges against him, he would be entitled to a speedy and public trial by a court or jury. The defendant has a right to a jury trial. However, in order that the trial be conducted by the judge sitting without a jury, the defendant, the government and the judge all must agree that the trial be conducted by the judge without a jury.
- b. If the trial is a jury trial, the jury would be composed of twelve citizens selected at random. The defendant and his attorney would have a say in who the jurors would be by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or without cause by exercising peremptory challenges. The jury would have to agree unanimously before it could return a verdict of guilty. The court would instruct the jury that the defendant is presumed innocent until such time, if ever, as the government establishes guilt by competent evidence to the satisfaction of the jury beyond a reasonable doubt.

- c. If the trial is held by the judge without a jury, the judge would find the facts and determine, after hearing all of the evidence, whether or not he was persuaded of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
- d. At such trial, whether by a judge or a jury, the government would be required to present witnesses and other evidence against the defendant. The defendant would be able to confront witnesses upon whose testimony the government is relying to obtain a conviction and he would have the right to cross-examine those witnesses. In turn the defendant could, but is not obligated to, present witnesses and other evidence on his own behalf. The defendant would be entitled to compulsory process to call witnesses.
- e. At such trial, defendant would have a privilege against self-incrimination so that he could decline to testify and no inference of guilt could be drawn from his refusal to testify. If defendant desired to do so, he could testify on his own behalf.

27. The defendant acknowledges and understands that by pleading guilty he is waiving all the rights set forth above. The defendant further acknowledges the fact that his attorney has explained these rights to him and the consequences of his waiver of these rights. The defendant further acknowledges that as a part of the guilty plea hearing, the court may question the defendant under oath, on the record, and in the presence of counsel about the offense to which the defendant intends to plead guilty. The defendant further understands that the defendant's answers may later be used against the defendant in a prosecution for perjury or false statement.

28. The defendant acknowledges and understands that he will be adjudicated guilty of the offense to which he will plead guilty and thereby may be deprived of certain rights, including but not limited to the right to vote, to hold public office, to serve on a jury, to possess firearms, and to be employed by a federally insured financial institution.

29. The defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives all claims he may have based upon the statute of limitations, the Speedy Trial Act, and the speedy trial provisions of the Sixth Amendment. The defendant agrees that any delay between the filing of this agreement and the entry of the defendant's guilty plea pursuant to this agreement constitutes excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act.

30. Based on the government's concessions in this agreement, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to appeal his sentence in this case and further waives his right to challenge his conviction or sentence in any post-conviction proceeding, including but not limited to a motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. This waiver does not extend to an appeal or post-conviction motion based on (1) any punishment in excess of the statutory maximum, (2) the sentencing court's reliance on any constitutionally impermissible factor, and (3) ineffective assistance of counsel.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

31. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d), the defendant has been advised and understands the court shall order as a mandatory condition of supervised release, that the defendant comply with state sex offender registration requirements. The defendant also has been advised and understands that under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, a federal law, he must register and keep the registration current in each of the following jurisdictions: the location of his residence; the location of his employment; and, if he is a student, the location of his school. Registration will require that the defendant provide information that includes, name, residence address, and the names and addresses of any places at which he will be an employee or a student. The defendant understands that he must update his registration not later than three business days after any change of name, residence, employment, or student status. The defendant understands that failure to comply with these obligations may subject him to prosecution for failure to register under federal law, 18 U.S.C. § 2250, which is punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment.

GENERAL MATTERS

32. The parties acknowledge, understand, and agree that this agreement does not require the government to take, or not to take, any particular position in any post-conviction motion or appeal.

33. The parties acknowledge, understand, and agree that the United States Attorney's office is free to notify any local, state, or federal agency of the defendant's conviction.

34. The defendant understands that pursuant to the Victim and Witness Protection Act, the Justice for All Act, and regulations promulgated thereto by the Attorney General of the United States, the victim of a crime may make a statement describing the impact of the offense on the victim and further may make a recommendation regarding the sentence to be imposed. The defendant acknowledges and understands that comments and recommendations by a victim may be different from those of the parties to this agreement.

EFFECT OF DEFENDANT'S BREACH OF PLEA AGREEMENT

35. The defendant acknowledges and understands if he violates any term of this agreement at any time, engages in any further criminal activity prior to sentencing, or fails to appear for sentencing, this agreement shall become null and void at the discretion of the government. The defendant further acknowledges and understands that the government's agreement to dismiss any charge is conditional upon final resolution of this matter. If this plea agreement is revoked or if the defendant's conviction ultimately is overturned, then the government retains the right to reinstate any and all dismissed charges and to file any and all charges which were not filed because of this agreement. The defendant hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives any defense based on the applicable statute of limitations for any charges filed against the defendant as a result of his breach of this agreement. The defendant understands, however, that the government may elect to proceed with the guilty plea and sentencing. If the defendant and his attorney have signed a proffer letter in connection with this case, then the defendant further acknowledges and understands that he continues to be subject to the terms of the proffer letter.

VOLUNTARINESS OF DEFENDANT'S PLEA

36. The defendant acknowledges, understands, and agrees that he will plead guilty freely and voluntarily because he is in fact guilty. The defendant further acknowledges and agrees that no threats, promises, representations, or other inducements have been made, nor agreements reached, other than those set forth in this agreement, to induce the defendant to plead guilty.
